From the UNIVERSAL MUSEUM, for July 1763.

Copy of a real Will.

The last Will and Testament of Mr. Daniel Martinett, of Calcutta, in the East Indies.

IN the Name of GOD. I DANIEL MARTINETT, of the Town of Calcutta, being in perfect Mind and Memory, though weak in Body, make this my last Will and Testament in Manner and Form following, appointing my truly beloved Friend, Mr. Edward Gulston, in the Service of the Hon. united East-India Company, of the aforesaid Town, to be my Executor, Revoking all my former Wills. To avoid Latin Phrases, as it is a Tongue I am not well versed in, I shall speak in plain English.

First, In the most submissive Manner, I recommend my Soul to Almighty GOD, hoping for Pardon for all my past Iniquities, through the Merits of his only Son my blessed Lord, Saviour, and Mediator, JESUS CHRIST.

Secondly, Now as to worldly Concerns, in the Manner following: As to this fulsome Carcase, having seen enough of the worldly Pomp, I desire nothing relative to it to be done, only it's being stowed away in my old green Chest, to avoid Expence; for as I Lived profusely I Die frugally.

Thirdly, The Undertaker's Fees come to Nothing, as I won them from him at a Game of Billiards, in the Presence of Mr. Thomas Morrice, and William Parkes, at the said William Parkes's House, in February last. I furthermore Request, not only as it is customary, but as I sincerely believe the Prayers of the Good availeth and are only consistent with Decency, that the Reverend Mr. Henry Butler read the Prayers which are customary at Burials, and preach a Funeral Sermon the Sunday next after my decease, taking his Text from Solomon, all is Vanity. In Consideration of which, over and above his Fees, I bestow him all my Hypocrisy, which he wants as a Modern good Man; but as my Finances are low and cannot conveniently discharge his Fees, I hope he will please to accept the Will for the Deed.

Fourthly, To Henry Vansittart, Esq; as an opulent Man, I leave the Discharge of all such Sum or Sums of Money (the Whole not exceeding 300 Rupees) that I shall stand indebted to indigent Persons in the Town of Calcutta.

Fifthly, To Mr. George Gray, Secretary to the Presidency, I bequeath all my Sincerity.

Sixthly, To Mr. Simon Droze, Writer to the Secretary's Office, all my Modesty.

Seventhly, To Mr. Henry Higgenson, also of the Secretary's Office, all the Thoughts I hope I shall die possessed of.

Eighthly, To Mr. Thomas Forbes, all the worldly Assurance which I had when I had taken a cheerful Glass, though in fact a doleful Cup.

Ninthly, My Wearing-Apparel, Furniture, Books, and every Thing else I die possessed of, I bequeath to them who stand most in Need of them, leaving it to the Discretion of my Executor, Mr. Edward Gulston, excepting the Things after mentioned: Unto Capt. Edward Menzies, late Commander of the Ship Hibernia, I give my Sea Quadrant, Invented by Hadley, and Made by Howel, in the Strand; likewise my two foot Gunter's Scales. These I give him, because I believe he knows the Use of them better than any Commander of this Port.

My Silver Watch and Buckles I give Mr. Edward Gulston, in lieu of his sincere Friendship during our Acquaintance; and these I hope he will not part with, unless his Necessities require it, which I sincerely hope will never be the Case. Also, to Mr. Thomas Forbes, I give my Gold Ring with a blue Stone set therein, [illegible] may exchange for a Mourning One if he pleases.

I give my Bible and Prayer-Book to the Rev. Mr. Henry Butler.

My Sword with a Cut and Thrust Blade, I give Capt. Rochfort [illegible] verily believe [illegible] and has Courage to use [illegible] good Cause.

As I have stood the [illegible] of a Modern Gentleman, being a Butt for Envy and a Mark for Malice, by acting a little out of the common Road, though thank GOD never in a bad Way, I hope I may die with sincere Love and Charity to all Men, forgiving all my Persecutors, as I hope for Forgiveness from my Creator.

As it lies not in my Power to bequeath any Thing to my Relations at Home, I shall say nothing concerning them, as they have not for these six Years past concerned themselves about me; excepting that I heartily wish them all well, and that my Brothers and Sisters may make a more prosperous Voyage thro' this Life than I have done.

DANIEL MARTINETT.

[N. B. We hear that Governor Vansittart was so well pleased with the Bequest which was made him, that he generously discharged the Testator's Debts abovementioned.]

LONDON, September 26.

THE French Ministry are beginning their old Squabbles, by refusing to pay us for the Maintainance of their Prisoners.

Sept. 27. We are assured by a Gentleman who left Dunkirk a few Days ago, that there was then in that Harbour a 90 Gun French Ship of War, and that the trifling Demolition done there was of no Consequence, nor will the French, it is thought, any Thing like comply with the Treaty with regard to that Place.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York went on board the Centurion, Commodore Harrison, the 23d Inst. when the Royal Standard was hoisted at the Main-top-mast-head, and the same Day sailed with a fair Wind for Portugal.

Several Transports are gone to Southampton, to take on board Troops for North-America.

Sept. 29. We hear his Royal Highness the Duke of York will spend only one Week in Lisbon, from whence he will proceed up the Streights, touch at Minorca, view the State of the Fortifications there, particularly of St. Philip's Castle, and immediately make the best of his Way to Leghorn, where, it is said, he will Land with a grand Retinue, in order to make the Tour of that Part of Italy.

Yesterday Morning their Majesties viewed the young Elephant in that Part of the Garden, at the Queen's Palace, lately enclosed from the Green Park, at which they expressed great Satisfaction.—The Animal goes down on his Knees for the Riders to get up on his Back, is very tame and gentle, and easily governed.

We hear that the Insurrection at the Manillas was owing to the Inhabitants refusing to pay the Subsidy agreed on, to the English; which brought on an Engagement, in which the Spaniards and Natives lost 2500 Men before it was entirely quelled.

They write from Paris of the 16th, that M. Bigot, late Commandant of Canada, was on the Tuesday before, removed at Midnight from the Chatelet to the Conciergerie. The Chatelet condemned him to be Beheaded; but his definitive Sentence is postponed on Account of the Adjournment of the Parliament.

We hear from Scotland, that a large Quantity of good Tar, equal to that from North-Carolina, having been extracted from Fir and Pine Trees in the Shire of Lothian, the Proprietors intend to erect a Manufacture of that Kind, which cannot fail to prove vastly beneficial, by lessening our East Country Trade for that Commodity very considerably.

As the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, was passing through Part of Wales, on his Way to that Kingdom, a Rock that hung over the Road, fell down, which stopped his Lordship half a Day.—Tho' he was very near, he received no hurt.

Sept. 30. Wednesday Morning the Earl of Bute was two Hours with his Majesty at Buckingham-House.

The following Changes are confidently talked of [illegible] to take place; Lord Holland, Privy Seal. Right Hon. Charles Townshend, Paymaster of the Forces. Duke of Rutland to retain. Duke of Marlborough, Master of the Horse. Marquis of Granby to be Captain-General of his Majesty's Forces.

Yesterday came on at Guildhall the Election of a Lord Mayor, when William Bridgen, Esq; Senior Alderman, was duly elected for this City the Year ensuing.

It is said the Sovereignty of a certain Island in the Mediterranean has been offered to one of our Princes of the Blood; be that as it will, many People are of Opinion that the Fleet lately put to Sea will touch there, in its Way up the Streights.

A Gentleman just arrived in the West-India Fleet, takes notice of the vast uneasiness of our Planters, at finding so great a Trade carried on to the French Islands by the several Colonies in North-America, and it was thought a proper Tax would be laid on both Exports and Imports, if no other method could be found to prevent our Enemies being enriched at our Expence in so unnatural a Manner.

We are glad to inform the Public, that the Exportation of Bullion, which of late has been almost incredibly great, is now ceased, owing to the Difference of Exchange.

Last Week a large Quantity of Powder and Shot was shipped for South-Carolina, where, it is thought, it may be wanted sooner than it was apprehended.

We hear a List of the several Sums that have been expended in what is called Secret Service Money, during a late Administration, will be demanded to be laid before the Parliament at the ensuing Sessions.

The independent Company which has lately been reduced at Bermuda, is, we hear, to be replaced from one of General Amherst's Regiments in New-York.——A Thing absolutely necessary, as the Number of Blacks on that Island exceed the White Inhabitants, in Proportion as Three to One, and there have been formerly dangerous Insurrections.

There has been a most dreadful Fire in the opulent City of Smyrna, in which above 400 Houses were entirely destroyed.

October 4. According to some Advices from Naples, they have lately finished four Galliots at Castelmare, for the service of Spain: They are to be navigated thither by Neapolitan Sailors, but not armed till they arrive in some Spanish Port.—Such good Turns for the Court of Madrid, we suppose, may be done by Virtue of the Family Compact.

From Petersburgh we hear, that the Empress has declared she will make use of the two new 60 Gun Ships lately launched, for a Voyage next Year to Revel and Livonia.

October 5. By Letters from Madrid we learn, that frequent Couriers arrive there from the Courts of Vienna and Versailles. Some Differences have arisen between those Courts, relative to the Treaty of Alliance concluded between them at the Beginning of the late War. France, it is said, Claims to be reimbursed the Subsidies which she paid to Russia, Sweden, and other Allies of the Empress Queen. The Catholic King wishes well both to France and Austria, and endeavours to mediate between them; and will succeed, it is thought, unless France rigidly insists on having certain Places in the Netherlands, as the Indemnification stipulated.

On Monday Night, a Peruke-Maker of Highgate, having some Words [not very good humour'd Ones, we may imagine] with his Wife, while in Bed, could not be Revenged on her any other Way, than by Biting out a Piece of her Flesh, from a certain Part which we omit to mention. He was taken before a Magistrate but upon the Wife's refusing to shew his Worship her Marks, he was Discharged. [A Jury of Women would at least have Sentenced this Hair-brained Fellow to have all his Teeth drawn.]

They write from Vienna, that Councils were scarce ever held more frequently than at present, and that their Imperial Majesties, for the most Part, assist at them. That there was lately a project of reviving the old System of the Balance of Power, and renewing the Alliance with England, but but it gained little Credit, though many were of Opinion, that that Step would be much for the Advantage of the Houſe of Auſtria, eſpecially if ſhe ſhould not be able to renew the Truce with the Turks, of which there is ſome doubt, as the new Vizir inſiſts on ſeveral Changes being made from the former Truce, to which the Empreſs Queen is not diſpoſed to agree. Mean while, the Court of Vienna continues to take the neceſſary Steps to cover Hungary. The laſt Advices ſay, that the Turkiſh Troops have drawn ſomewhat nearer to the Frontiers of that Kingdom, and that their Number has been reinforced; that, however, they have not, hitherto, committed any Hoſtility; but that ſeveral Inhabitants of the Frontiers had removed with their beſt Effects towards the Heart of the Kingdom.

London, Sept. 10. Yeſterday the Baggage of the new French Ambaſſador, and alſo ſeveral of his Domeſtics, was brought to Burlington-Houſe in Piccadilly, which Houſe is taken for his Reception.

The Letters to day from Amſterdam, Hamburgh, Stockholm, &c. all agree, that Affairs are much better, and that it is hoped they will ſtill mend, and that public Credit will be ſoon re-eſtabliſhed. The Stocks in Holland have riſen One per Cent.

Sept. 15. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Samuel Smith, and John Ladd, Eſqrs. to be Gentlemen of the Council for New-Jerſey.

To give Employment to the many Thouſands of Soldiers lately reduced, and for the better ſettling and improving our new Conqueſts in America, a Scheme has been drawn up by the Board of Trade, which we hear will ſpeedily take Place, and be made public by royal Proclamation. Among the Advantages offered to theſe New Settlers by this Plan, the following is Part, to wit, that every Field Officer, who ſettles in theſe Countries, ſhall have a Grant from the Crown of 5000 Acres, every Captain a Grant of 3000, every Subaltern and Staff-Officer a Grant of 2500, every Serjeant 100, and every private Man 50.

A large Ship, full of Palatines, to the Number of 200, ſome of whom are of good Property, ſet ſail from Helvoetſluys the 4th Inſtant for Florida.

Yeſterday, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and his Royal Highneſs the Prince his Brother, who is Duke of Glouceſter, were brought from the Queen's Palace in the Park to St. James's Palace, and there ſhewn to the Public thro' the Windows. At Twelve her Majeſty came to St. James's Palace. At a Quarter after Seven in the Evening the Proceſſion, which preceded the Baptiſm of the young Prince, began, and was as follows: Lady Auguſta led by Prince William; Princeſs Louiſa led by Prince Henry; Princeſs Matilda led by Prince Frederick; and Princeſs Amelia led by the Duke of Cumberland; then followed a great Number of the Nobility, &c. who all went to the Great Council Chamber, where a very rich and grand Canopy and Bed were prepared. The Ceremony of Baptiſm was performed by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, who chriſtened his Royal Highneſs by the Name of FREDERICK. The Sponſors were the Duke of York, who was repreſented by the Earl of Huntingdon, the Duke of Saxe Gotha (Brother to the Princeſs of Wales) repreſented by the Lord Chamberlain, and the Princeſs Amelia.

After the Ceremony was over, the Company, which was extremely brilliant, went into the Queen's Apartments, and were entertained with Caudle and Cake. It was obſerved that his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales was placed all the while at her Majeſty's right Hand.

Letters by the Holland Mail, Yeſterday, ſeem to give ſome favourable Hopes of the Mercantile Part, both in Holland and Germany; ſo that we hope ſoon to ſee Trade Flouriſh in its uſual Track.

Sept. 17. Yeſterday her Majeſty made her Appearance in the Drawing-room at St. James's for the firſt Time ſince her Lying-in, and received the Compliments of the Nobility, Gentry, and Foreign Miniſters, on the Occaſion.

PHILADELPHIA, November 24.

The following Account we had from a young Man, a Baker, of this Town, viz. That on Saturday laſt being at a Tavern in Cheſter, on his Way home from a Journey, a Man, dreſſed in a Blue Coat, came into the Room where he was, who pretended likewiſe to be coming to Philadelphia, but had no Horſe: That after ſome Time the Baker ſet off for Town, when this Perſon immediately jumped on behind him, and rid with him in that Manner for ſome Diſtance, whiſtling and hallooing ſometimes, as if he wanted ſome Body to come to him, and endeavouring to get a Gun from the young Man, which he luckily happened to have with him; but finding he could not get it, he diſmounted, and walked ſome Time by the Side of the Horſe, holding the Man by the Leg, and at laſt left him, and went into the Woods: That then the Man put on, but had not rid far before he was ſtopt by three Men from the Woods, one of whom took his Horſe by the Bridle (all the 3 being about the Horſe's Head) upon which he fired his Gun, and wounded the Fellow that had hold of the Horſe, as he imagines, in the Arm, as he then let go his Hold, reeled back, and cried out, O JESUS: That after this he put on again, but had not come a great Way, before he was ſtopt by one Man, who deſired him to ſtand; but he gave him a Blow with the Butt End of his Gun, which broke it, and the Fellow quitting his Hold, the Man came off, and got ſafe to Town.

ANNAPOLIS, December 8.

His Excellency Sir Jeffery Amherſt, ſailed for England from New-York, the latter End of laſt Month, in the Weſel Snow of War: And General Gage, who is now Commander in Chief of all his Majeſty's Forces in North-America, is arrived at New-York, from Montreal.

Laſt Week as one John Paul, was removing from Prince-George's County into this, and Croſſing Patuxent, about 15 Miles from Town, with a Cart load of Goods, he by ſome Accident fell off the Cart into the River, and was Drowned.
